
Legislation

The main internal provision regulating the support for persons with disabilities is health regulation is the Rector's Directive N. 28/2023 Support to be provided to students and applicants for study with special needs at Charles University

The provision of services and their financing is governed by the Ministry of Education, Youth and Sport Rules for Providing Allowances and Subsidies to Public Institutions of Higher Education . This document specifies, inter alia, the standards of the measures provided to students in the individual disability categories.