
Individual tuition

Individual tuition is provided in cases when the (sensorial or physical) accessibility of common tuition is limited due to the student's disability. Tuition may be provided to a single student independently or to small groups of students with the same special needs or possibly using the same work methods.

The service is provided after agreement with the contact person on the basis of a formally submitted application.

