Computer reading room

The computer room for students with special needs is a part of the Digitisation Centre (Celetná 20, Praha 1, 1st floor, contact).

 Registered students with special needs (regardless of category) may use the computers in this room. They are equipped with special software for students with visual impairment (JAWS, Zoomtext). The reading room also offers the option of free printing/copying/scanning of study materials.