
Student societies

Student life at CU is organised especially through student societies of which there are several dozen at the individual faculties. Student organisations which meet the requirements may receive financial support for the activities.

Support for student interest activities

The procedure in applying for financial support of CU student interest activities and the terms of granting applications are provided for by:

- Rules for Supporting CU Student Interest Activities
- Rector's Measure No. 13/2018 (Principles of Providing Support for Student Interest Activities)

According to the above-listed regulations, the support can be provided for interest activities taking place at the University or faculty.

The deadlines for submitting applications are the following:

- application for regular financial support for interest activity at the University
– 30 September of the current calendar year
- application for one-off financial support for interest activity at the University
– 15 November of the current calendar year
- application for one-off financial support for interest activity at the faculty
– 28 February, 30 April and 15 October

The application for support for interest activity is submitted on a special form annexed to the above-mentioned Rector's Measure No. 13/2018:

- Application for the grant of financial support for student interest activity at Charles University or
- Application for the grant of support other than financial support for student interest activity at Charles University

The requirements are defined in Article 7 of the mentioned Rector's Measure, with a major requirement being the budget of the activity (recommended form for draft budget can be downloaded here).

The application is submitted in print for the attention of H.M. the Rector, and in electronic form addressed to zajmovacinnost@cuni.cz.

The written form of the application is decisive and must be delivered to the University not later than the deadline. The paper forms of the applications are submitted at the filing office at the CU Rectorate.

Applications delivered after the deadline will not be discussed at the relevant meeting of the committee.

One of the application conditions is the registration of the society or foundation on a list kept by the University. The application for registration must be addressed to registr-spolku@cuni.cz and must contain the following details:

- name,
- legal form,
- name of individual or persons authorised to act on behalf of the society or foundation,
- address of seat,
- mailing address, connection and
- possible reference to website or other electronic presentation.
